1. Graduate School of Fine Arts Admissions Policy

The Graduate School of Fine Arts Master's Course assesses applicants comprehensively based on the results of their written, practical, and oral examinations, interview, and documentation (portfolio, academic papers, and other materials submitted). Each program carries out a set of screening examinations that reflect the features of the program to the maximum extent. The Graduate School seeks applicants who are willing to acquire the basic knowledge and techniques required in their respective fields by attending undergraduate classes, while working towards a higher level of creativity and originality.

2. Number of Students Admitted

6 students

3. Eligibility to Apply

Applicants to the Graduate School of Fine Arts (MFA Program) must meet one of the following requirements:

1. Has graduated (or is expected to graduate before entering the Graduate School) from a university in Japan, as stipulated in Article 83 of the School Education Act (Act No. 26 of 1947).
2. Possesses a bachelor's degree (or expects to obtain such degree before entering the Graduate School) as stipulated in Article 104, Paragraph 4 (National Institution for Academic Degrees and University Evaluation) of the School Education Act (Act No. 26 of 1947).

6. Application Procedures

Application Procedures and Methods

Starting in 2017, Tokyo University of the Arts adopted an online application system for its application procedures. The procedures and instructions to apply are as follows. Follow instructions 1 and 2 before the designated deadline and send application documents listed under 3 to our office before the submission deadline. The application procedure will be complete once all necessary documents are received and the applicant's eligibility to apply is confirmed. Upon receipt of the application, the applicant may print out an examination ticket through the online application site.

1	Register for online application (For details, see page 5)	Go to the University website's admission information page and access the online application site. Enter the required fields and register as an applicant.
2	Remit screening fee (For details, see page 6)	After completing 1, follow the instructions on the online application site to remit the screening fee.
3	Mail application documents (For details, see page 8-10)	After completing 2, print out the application documents from the online application site and the University admission information site. Mail them to the University along with other necessary forms.

4	Print examination ticket (For details, see page 11)	Once the applicant is deemed qualified and the application is received, they may print out an examination ticket. Be sure to print it and save it until the examination is complete.

7. Screening examination content, date, and time

We decide whether to admit a student based on comprehensive evaluations that include assessments of academic abilities by the Graduate School and review of documents submitted by the applicant.

Applicants who fail to complete or submit even one of the assigned examinations will be ruled ineligible for admission. Note that screening fees will not be returned (even if the applicant shows up for the examination on the wrong date).

Applicants of the Global Art Practice Program are required to submit a portfolio, which is a collection showing the applicant's past works and activities.

For details of the submission of the portfolio and other materials, please read the following instructions.

1. When submitting these materials, attach the Portfolio Submission Form (for Attachment) to each work and other materials submitted and submit the Portfolio Submission Form (for Submission) to the specified section. (Enclose the Portfolio Submission Form [for Submission] if sending materials by mail.)

The Portfolio Submission Form is used mainly to certify that the portfolio belongs to an examinee and to prevent cases of mistaken attribution or identity. If you are unable to obtain certification from your faculty advisor, obtain certification from another party who knows you and your abilities well. In addition, attach one sheet to each item in the portfolio unless there are specific reasons for not doing so.

2. Once submitted, portfolios and other materials will not be returned.

10:00 am Friday, September 29, 2017(Japan time)
(Admission procedure documents will be sent to admitted students around October 5, 2017.)

* The examinee numbers of admitted students will also be posted on the University's website (<http://admissions.geidai.ac.jp>). Admission decisions are to be posted on the website around 11:00 am after the results are posted on campus.

9. Admission Procedures

(1) Period for completing admission procedures

① By mail

Completed admission procedure documents must be received by Thursday, October 26, 2017.

② In person

October 26 (Thursday), 2017: 10:00 am – 12:00 noon, 2:00 – 4:00 pm

Applicants who fail to complete admission procedures during the above period will be deemed to have declined the offer of admission to the Graduate School.

(2) Place

Educational Affairs Section, 1F, Central Building, Faculty of Fine Arts, Tokyo University of the Arts (12-8 Ueno Koen, Taito-ku, Tokyo)

(3) Fees

Use the remittance request form distributed on the day of announcement of the admission decision to pay the following fees:

Type	Amount	Remarks
Enrollment fee* ¹	338,400 yen	Planned amount (Not required from Japanese government-funded international students)
Student welfare and guidance support fee	10,000 yen
Mori-no-kai (alumni association) membership fee	40,000 yen	Payable by students who have graduated from other universities and students who have graduated from the University but have yet to pay the Mori-no-kai membership fee. Includes membership fee and 10 years' dues. International students are exempt.
Student casualty insurance premium	1,750 yen	Two years' premium
Student casualty insurance additional liability insurance premium	680 yen	Two years' premium

*1: The enrollment fee will not be returned after completion of admission procedures, even if the student withdraws on or before March 31, 2018.

◇Required costs after admission

Tuition fees (first semester): 267,900 yen (full year: 535,800 yen) (planned amounts)

< Not required from Japanese government-funded international students >

- ① Any change in tuition fees during your time as an enrolled student will go into effect at the time of the change.
- ② In principle, the fees are paid by an account transfer (automatic withdrawal). At the admission procedure, students submit the "Account Transfer Request Statement" and the school will withdraw the money automatically from the registered account. (Withdrawal dates: at the end of May for the first term and at the end of November for the second term)
- ③ The transfer will be made on the end of May for the first semester, and on the end of November for the second semester of the first year.

(4) Materials fee

In addition to the above mentioned fees, you will need to pay the material fee of approximately 300,000 yen. This amount is to be paid at the time of enrollment. (It is not an annual fee. It covers the entire period of the Master's Degree program.) The payment method will be notified by your program.

Your visa responsibility

- Apart from the enrollment procedures, it is your responsibility as an international students to obtain an appropriate visa to stay and study in Japan.
- If you intend to enter Japan on a short-term visa such as a tourist visa, and change your visa status to a student visa after your arrival in Japan, make sure you have a valid visa that allows you to stay in Japan approximately three months, which is an estimated amount of time required for a screening by the Immigration Bureau of Japan.

10. Exemption /deferral of admission/tuition fees

Tokyo University of the Arts offers a program to exempt/defer the admission and tuition fees. To benefit from this program, check the following application conditions, then complete the designated procedures before paying your admission or tuition fee.

(Note that you cannot apply for exemption or deferral after you make your payment. Also, since exemption from the admission fee will not necessarily be granted even when the conditions for application are met and since not all applications for exemption from tuition fees are approved, applicants should prepare in advance to pay both the admission fee and tuition fee.)

The conditions for applying for exemption/deferral are described below.

1. Exemption for admission fee

- ① Cases in which it would be difficult, for economic reasons, for an applicant recognized as a student of high scholastic standing to pay the admission fee by the payment deadline.
- ② Cases in which it is recognized that it would be very difficult for the applicant to pay the admission fee due to conditions arising within one year prior to admission, such as the death of the primary income earner in the household or economic hardships imposed on the primary income earner or the applicant due to a natural disaster.
- ③ Cases equivalent to those described under ① above which are determined by the President of the University as qualifying for exemption.

2. Deferral of admission fee

- ① Cases in which it would be difficult, for economic reasons, for an applicant recognized as a student of high scholastic standing to pay the admission fee by the payment deadline.
- ② Cases in which it is recognized that it would be very difficult for the applicant to pay the admission fee due to conditions arising within one year prior to admission, such as the death of the primary income earner in the household or economic hardships imposed on the primary income earner or the applicant due to a natural disaster.
- ③ Other cases as deemed unavoidable

3. Exemption from tuition fee

- ① Cases in which it would be difficult, for economic reasons, for an applicant recognized as a student of high scholastic standing to pay the admission fee by the payment deadline.
- ② Cases in which it is recognized that it would be very difficult for the applicant to pay the admission fee due to conditions arising within one year prior to admission, such as the death of the primary income earner in the household or economic hardships imposed on the primary income earner or the applicant due to a natural disaster.

4. Deferral of tuition fee

- ① Cases in which it would be difficult, for economic reasons, for an applicant recognized as a student of high scholastic standing to pay the admission fee by the payment deadline

Contact the Student Affairs Division (Phone 050-5525-2069 : Japanese only) if you have questions about the above conditions for application.

12. Handling of Personal Information

Under the Act on the Protection of Personal Information by Incorporated Administrative Agencies (“Personal Information Protection Act” hereinafter), the University will use personal information obtained during the process of selecting students for tasks related to the selection process and for other purposes, as described below.

1. Purposes of use

- (1) Personal information concerning admitted students such as names and addresses will be used for tasks related to admission procedures.
- (2) Personal information such as names and addresses concerning persons who have completed admission procedures will be used following matriculation for tasks related to their studies, including management of student records and tasks related to health, such as medical examinations.
- (3) Personal information such as names and addresses concerning persons who have completed admission procedures will be used for tasks related to management of payments, such as collection of enrollment and tuition fees.
- (4) Personal information such as applicant assessments made during the selection process will be used for tasks related to support for studies, including waivers of enrollment fees and tuition fees in the first year and selection of students for scholarships.
- (5) Personal information such as applicant assessments made during the selection process will be used for tasks related to statistical processing, provision of information to prospective students, and surveys and research related to the selection process. In such cases, the personal information will be used in ways that render it impossible to identify individuals.

2. Provision of personal information to third parties

Apart from the cases set forth in Article 9 of the Personal Information Protection Act, personal information obtained by the University will not be used for other purposes or provided to third parties without the permission of the applicants themselves.

However, the minimum required information may be provided in the following cases:

- (1) Tasks involving the handling of personal information described in 1. (1) – (5) above may be entrusted to an external third party after concluding a contract with the third party concerning appropriate handling of personal information.
- (2) To facilitate operations related to acceptance decisions and additional acceptance decisions through the separate installment system in which national and public universities offer two opportunities to take entrance examinations, personal information related to matters such as acceptance and admission procedures (limited to names and examinee nos. for the National Center Test) may be provided to the National Center for University Entrance Examinations and any other national and public universities to which the applicant has applied.
- (3) Provision of information to parties outside the University in cases in which this would be in the interests of the person concerned
 - ① Musical Education Promotion Association (parents’ association for the Faculty of Music supporting faculty education and research and student extracurricular activities)
 - ② Mori-no-kai (alumni association of the Faculty of Fine Arts)
 - ③ Dosei-kai (alumni association of the Faculty of Music)
