Important Notice to Applicants for Global Art Practice

Due to the specific features of our curriculum, preparing and planning for your individual support may take time. If an applicant requires special accommodations for examination or enrollment, please consult the Global Art Practice faculty in advance.

Applicants who require special accommodations during practical classes such as handling chemicals commonly used in the workshops or dust, or with long-term medical conditions such as diabetes, allergies or arthritis should also contact the faculty for preliminary consultations.

Special features of GAP curriculum:

- Collaboration with students from various countries, cultures and backgrounds.
- Programs such as the Unit Program (a joint class program with our overseas partner schools) involving overseas travels, and staying and working in groups for several weeks in Japan and abroad.
- Special programs held during the holidays in the University academic calendar
(※ Classes may be held during the summer holiday.)
- Technical training in the workshops (woodwork, metalwork, casting, glass, etc).

Please note that students in the Global Art Practice cannot acquire a specialized teacher's license.

1. Graduate School of Fine Arts Admissions Policy

The master's course in fine art, in comparison to the bachelor's course, along with providing a higher level of expertise, aims to train talented individuals that have a broad understanding of the arts and are able to be internationally active within the arts. The master's program selects candidates through the comprehensive use of academic tests (written, practical, oral examinations, etc.), interviews, and submitted materials (a portfolio of works, thesis, etc.). The selection process is carried out through intensive evaluations that reflect the highest regard for the characteristics of each major. Students hoping to enroll in this graduate course are expected to engage in studies to increase their creativity and ingenuity, in addition to acquiring the fundamental knowledge and techniques of each major in the undergraduate course.

Students at Global Art Practice are required to take classes related to their practical works. Please look at the website of Global Art Practice for the detailed information about requirements to receive their master's degrees.

Students who wish to graduate with a thesis must receive approvals from their primary tutors by September of their first year at the program.

6. Application Procedures

Application Procedures and Methods

Starting in 2017, Tokyo University of the Arts adopted an online application system for its application procedures. Since the entrance examinations for the academic year 2021, application documents such as portfolios must also be submitted online. The procedures and instructions to apply are as follows. Please complete 1 and 2 during the designated period, and complete the payment of screening fee by the deadline for payment (3).

It is also required that screening examination documents are uploaded through the designated method (Google Classroom) by Global Art Practice department during the designated period (4).

The application procedure will be complete once all necessary documents are received and the applicant's eligibility to apply is confirmed. Upon receipt of the application, the applicant may print out an examination ticket through the online application site.

*Japan standard time (UTC/GMT+9)

1	Register for online application (For details, see page 6)	Go to the University website's admission information page (https://admissions.geidai.ac.jp/) and access the online application site (https://e-apply.jp/ds/geidai-net/). Application Period

Registration for online application, online submission for application documents and remittance for screening fee
Begins at 10:00 on Monday, August 16th and ends at 23:59 on Monday, August 23rd, 2021.

(Japan time)

Upload period for screening examination documents:

Begins at 10:00 on Monday, August 16th and ends at 23:59 on Thursday, August 26th, 2021.

(Japan time)

Only application documents uploaded in the assigned data format to the Online application site and screening examination documents uploaded by the designated method (Google Classroom) within the submission period will be accepted.

Documents will not be accepted if brought to the University in person or mailed by post.

No application documents received after the submission deadline will be accepted for any reason.

Notes on Applying

- The online application procedure will NOT be complete by online registration alone. Since the entrance examinations for the academic year 2021, all required application documents, including screening examination documents, must be submitted online. Screening fee (see page 12 for details) must also be paid during the designated period.
- Offers of admission will be canceled if any of the required application documents submitted online differ from the original copies, or the original copies are not submitted by the deadline designated by the university (expected to be around November 2021, when enrollment documents will be sent out).
- After verifying that the academic history and other information in the submitted application meet the requirements to apply and the application is received, you will be able to print your examination ticket through the online application site (see page 15).
- If some of the application documents are missing or incomplete, applications may be denied.
- Application documents cannot be revised for any reason after receipt.

8. Announcement of Admitted Students

○ Announcement of Admission Decision

The examinee numbers of admitted students will be posted on the University's website (<http://admissions.geidai.ac.jp>).

10:00 Wednesday, September 29th, 2021

(Admission procedure documents will be sent to admitted students around October 13, 2021)

9. Admission Procedures

(1) Period for completing admission procedures

(2) By mail

Completed admission procedure documents must be received by Friday, November 26th, 2021.

Applicants who fail to complete admission procedures during the above period will be deemed to have declined the offer of admission to the Graduate School.

※Please also submit the original copies of all the required application documents by this deadline.

(3) Submit to

Educational Affairs Section, Faculty of Fine Arts, Tokyo University of the Arts: 12-8 Ueno Park, Taito-ku, Tokyo 110-8714

(4) Fees

Use the remittance request form distributed on the day of announcement of the admission decision to pay the following fees:

Type	Amount	Remarks
Enrollment fee* ¹	338,400 yen	Planned amount (Not required from Japanese government-funded international students)
Student welfare and guidance support fee	10,000 yen
Mori-no-kai (alumni association) membership fee	40,000 yen	Payable by students who have graduated from other universities and students who have graduated from the University but have yet to pay the Mori-no-kai membership fee. Includes membership fee and 10 years' dues. International students are exempt.
Student casualty insurance premium	1,750 yen	Two years' premium
Student casualty insurance additional liability insurance premium	680 yen	Two years' premium
Tokyo University of the Arts Campus Facility Management Association fee * ²	50,000 yen

*1: The enrollment fee will not be returned after completion of admission procedures, even if the student withdraws on or before March 31st, 2022.

*2: Tokyo University of the Arts Campus Facility Management Association — organized to provide funding for facility management contributing to the enhancement of the campus environment.

If you agree with a purpose, please apply for membership. Please pay it at the time of admission. The membership is effective until you finish your master's degree.

◇Required costs after admission

Tuition fees (first semester): 321,480yen (second semester):321,480yen (full year): 642,960yen (planned amounts)

*Not required from Japanese government-funded international students

- ① Any change in tuition fees during your time as an enrolled student will go into effect at the time of the change.
- ② In principle, the fees are paid by an account transfer (automatic withdrawal). At the admission procedure, students submit the "Account Transfer Request Statement" and the school will withdraw the money automatically from the registered account. (Withdrawal dates: at the end of May for the first term and at the end of November for the second term)
- ③ The transfer will be made on the end of May for the first semester, and on the end of November for the second semester of the first year.

*Materials fee

In addition to the above mentioned fees, you will need to pay the material fee of approximately 300,000 yen. This amount is to be paid at the time of enrollment. (It is not an annual fee. It covers the entire period of the Master's Degree program.) The payment method will be notified by your program.

(5) Other

* Visa and status of residence

• In addition to completing the admission procedures, international students are responsible for obtaining appropriate visas to study in Japan.

Students with the residence status of Short-Term Stay may enter Japan and sit for the entrance examination, but they must acquire the residence status of Student before beginning their studies at the university, once their admission is confirmed.

10. Exemption / Deferral of admission/ Tuition fees

Tokyo University of the Arts offers a program to exempt/defer the admission and tuition fees. To benefit from this program, check the following application conditions, then complete the designated procedures before paying your admission or tuition fee.

(Note that you cannot apply for exemption or deferral after you make your payment. Also, since exemption from the admission fee will not necessarily be granted even when the conditions for application are met and since not all applications for exemption from tuition fees are approved, applicants should prepare in advance to pay both the admission fee and tuition fee.)

The conditions for applying for exemption/deferral are described below.

1. Exemption for admission fee

- ① Cases in which it would be difficult, for economic reasons, for an applicant recognized as a student of high scholastic standing to pay the admission fee.
- ② Cases in which it is recognized that it would be difficult for the applicant to pay the admission fee due to conditions arising within one year prior to admission, such as the death of the primary income earner in the household or economic hardships imposed on the primary income earner or the applicant due to a natural disaster.
- ③ Cases equivalent to those described under ① above which are determined by the President of the University as qualifying for exemption.

2. Deferral of admission fee

- ① Cases in which it would be difficult, for economic reasons, for an applicant recognized as a student of high scholastic standing to pay the admission fee by the payment deadline.
- ② Cases in which it is recognized that it would be difficult for the applicant to pay the admission fee by the payment deadline due to conditions arising within one year prior to admission, such as the death of the primary income earner in the household or economic hardships imposed on the primary income earner or the applicant due to a natural disaster.
- ③ Other cases as deemed unavoidable.

3. Exemption from tuition fee

- ① Cases in which it would be difficult, for economic reasons, for an applicant recognized as a student of high scholastic standing to pay the tuition fee by the payment deadline.
- ② Cases in which it is recognized that it would be difficult for the applicant to pay the tuition fee due to conditions arising within one year prior to the payment deadline, such as the death of the primary income earner in the household or economic hardships imposed on the primary income earner or the applicant due to a natural disaster.

4. Deferral of tuition fee

- ① Cases in which it would be difficult, for economic reasons, for an applicant recognized as a student of high scholastic standing to pay tuition by the payment deadline.
- ② Cases in which it is recognized that it would be difficult for the applicant to pay tuition by the payment deadline due to conditions arising within one year prior to the payment deadline, such as the death of the primary income earner in his or her household or economic hardships imposed on the primary income earner or the applicant due to a natural disaster.
- ③ Other cases as deemed unavoidable.

11. About the Study Support Scholarship (Benefit Type)

This scholarship program pays benefits of 50,000 yen per semester (100,000 yen per year; repayment not required) to students who would find it difficult to pay the tuition fees for financial reasons but are not eligible for exemption from tuition fees under 3 above because they do not meet the standards for recognition of high scholastic standing.

Applicants who wish to apply for this scholarship must complete the specified procedures at the same time they apply for exemption of tuition fees described above.

Consult with the Scholarships Section in the Student Affairs Division for more information. Consultation requests are also accepted before the application process.

12. Disclosure of Information on Entrance Examinations

Individual results of screening and entrance examinations for the Graduate School of Fine Arts (MFA Program) will be disclosed only if requested by the examinee themselves.

4. After receipt of requests for release, results will be sent in late December 2021.

The results will be sent to your address in Japan only, at a later date by simple registered mail.)

If you wish to receive your results at a location outside Japan, please ask the Educational Affairs Section of the Faculty of Fine Arts.(E-mail:bijutsu.kyoumu@ml.geidai.ac.jp)

13. Handling of Personal Information

Under the Act on the Protection of Personal Information by Incorporated Administrative Agencies (“Personal Information Protection Act” hereinafter), the University will use personal information obtained during the process of selecting students for tasks related to the selection process and for other purposes, as described below.

1. Purposes of use

- (1) Personal information concerning admitted students such as names and addresses will be used for tasks related to admission procedures.
- (2) Personal information such as names and addresses concerning persons who have completed admission procedures will be used following matriculation for tasks related to their studies, including management of student records and tasks related to health, such as medical examinations.
- (3) Personal information such as names and addresses concerning persons who have completed admission procedures will be used for tasks related to management of payments, such as collection of enrollment and tuition fees.
- (4) Personal information such as applicant assessments made during the selection process will be used for tasks related to support for studies, including waivers of enrollment fees and tuition fees in the first year and selection of students for scholarships.
- (5) Personal information such as applicant assessments made during the selection process will be used for tasks related to statistical processing, provision of information to prospective students, and surveys and research related to the selection process. In such cases, the personal information will be used in ways that render it impossible to identify individuals.

2. Provision of personal information to third parties

Apart from the cases set forth in Article 9 of the Personal Information Protection Act, personal information obtained by the University will not be used for other purposes or provided to third parties without the permission of the applicants themselves.

However, the minimum required information may be provided in the following cases:

- (1) Tasks involving the handling of personal information described in 1. (1) – (5) above may be entrusted to an external third party after concluding a contract with the third party concerning appropriate handling of personal information.
- (2) To facilitate operations related to acceptance decisions and additional acceptance decisions through the separate installment system in which national and public universities offer two opportunities to take entrance examinations, personal information related to matters such as acceptance and admission procedures (limited to names and examinee nos. for the Common Test for University Admissions) may be provided to the National Center for University Entrance Examinations and any other national and public universities to which the applicant has applied.
