2022 Academic Year

Tokyo University of the Arts Faculty of Music, Graduate School of Music

For applicants who live currently out of Japan

For the entrance examinations of the Faculty of Music, Practical Music Course, and of the Graduate School of Music (Master course, Doctoral course, Research Students), applicants are required to come to the Ueno campus in Japan to take examinations.

Even if he/she will not be able to come to Japan and as a result of that he/she won't be able to take examinations, we will not refund the screening fee after payment, therefore please make a careful decision when you apply for a program.

Please note that no special measures such as makeup examinations will be available for examinees who have refrained from taking their examinations for such reasons.
