★Notice regarding COVID-19

The Graduate School of Film and New Media may decide to make changes to the entrance exam schedule, selection process, etc. as necessary in response to COVID-19. If changes should occur, updates will be posted on the exam info website (<https://admissions.geidai.ac.jp/>). Please check the website for updates on a daily basis.

As a general rule, the following individuals are not allowed to take the entrance exam: those who have contracted COVID-19 and have not been diagnosed as recovered by a physician before the exam date, those who have been notified by a public health center for being in close contact with a confirmed COVID-19 case immediately before the exam date (see Note 1), and those whose exam date falls during the self-isolation period after entering Japan. There will be no special provisions for makeup exams or application fee refunds, so please take care to monitor your health for the day of the entrance exam.

Note 1 However, if you are an asymptomatic close contact and meet the following requirements, you can take the exam.

- (1) The results of the PCR test by the local government and antigen quantitative test at the quarantine station are negative.
- (2) You are asymptomatic on the day of the exam.
- (3) Do not use public transportation (trains, buses, taxis, aircraft, passenger ships, etc.) and avoid crowded places when you come to the exam venue.

If the above situation applies to you, please contact the Educational Affairs Office at the Graduate School of Film and New Media in advance.

Access online application website (https://e-apply.jp/ds/geidai-net/) ▼
My page registration If you are applying online for the first time, please click the "My registration" button to register your MyPage. ▼
Internet Application Click on the "Login" button to access the "MyPage" you have registered. After accessing your MyPage, click on the "Carry out the application procedure" button and fill in the necessary information such as the admission category, faculty/department, personal information, and so on. * Admission examination fee exemption system: Fill in the box if applicable; if not, click "Next" without making any selection. ▼
Register personal information / upload photo Photo: Prepare and upload color photo (see page 6). Personal information (name, address etc.) from your My Page registration will be automatically entered, so check it for accuracy. Enter all other necessary information (registered domicile or nationality, contact information at the time of the examination, etc.) and proceed to "Next." ▼
Confirm application details Check that the entered information is correct, and if there are no errors, click "Register with this content." ▼
Complete application registration Registration is complete when the reception number is displayed on the screen. Click "Continue to payment" to proceed to the payment procedure.(See page 8)

* When your online application registration is complete, you will receive a confirmation email with your reception number at your registered email address, so be sure to check it.

* The reception number will be required to confirm your application details, print your application form, etc., so keep the registration completion email in a safe place until the end of the entrance examination.

2-5-3. Notice regarding online application

- Please note that the 12-digit reception number is not your examination number.
- If there is an error in the registered information, click "Modify" on "My Page" without paying the entrance examination fee, input the correct information, and then proceed to the entrance examination fee payment procedure.
- Once you have paid the entrance examination fee, you cannot modify your registration details. Therefore, if you find an error in your registration details after paying the examination fee, click "Perform application procedure" again within the application registration period to register your application and pay the entrance examination fee again. Please refer to page 10 for details on requesting a refund for an entrance examination fee paid by mistake.
- If you have not paid the application fee by 23:59 on the fourth day after registering your online application, the registered data will be treated as cancelled and deleted.
- You may have to resubmit your application photo if found to be unacceptable.

2-7-4. Sending required documents by post

- Prepare a standard No. 2 rectangular envelope (240×332mm) for use in submitting required documents.
- From the online application website (<https://e-apply.jp/ds/geidai-net/>), print out the Address Label to Affix to Envelope (it will be printed with the application for admission form), and affix it to the No. 2 envelope.
- Insert the required documents into the No. 2 envelope described above and, within the dates indicated for submission of required documents, send by registered express mail to:
Educational Affairs Office, Graduate School of Film and New Media, Tokyo University of the Arts,
4-44 Honcho, Naka-ku, Yokohama, 231-0005 Japan

2-7-5. Notice regarding sending required documents

- The required documents will only be accepted if the postmark is within the designated dates. Documents will not be accepted under any circumstances if the postmark is not within the designated dates or if the documents are delivered in person.
- Documents will not be returned at the end of the application process under any circumstances.
- If you are applying from outside of Japan, please send your documents using a reliable method such as DHL or EMS.

2-8. Printing out the exam slip

2-8-1. Procedure

Once the application process is complete, you will be able to print out your exam slip from the online application website (<https://e-apply.jp/ds/geidai-net/>) (you will be sent a notice by email). Print the exam slip in color on an A4 sheet of paper and cut out the exam slip along the dotted lines, and bring it with you to exams. Please note that the exam slip is not issued by the university.

You must have the exam slip on the day of the exam, and you cannot take the exam using the application receipt number. Please note that the application receipt number is not the same as your exam number.

2-8-2. Notice regarding printing the exam slip

- Check the information on the printed exam slip. If the information you registered on the online application website (<https://e-apply.jp/ds/geidai-net/>), and the information contained in the exam slip are not the same, please contact the Educational Affairs Office, Graduate School of Film and New Media (Tel: 045-650-6201).
- If by 21 December 2022 (20 January 2023) you have not received an email informing you that you are now able to print out the exam slip, please contact the Educational Affairs Office, Graduate School of Film and New Media.
- Print the exam slip in color on an A4 sheet of paper and cut out the exam slip along the dotted lines, and bring the exam slip on the day of the exam.

2-9. Concurrent applications to other graduate schools of the university

There is no restriction on making concurrent applications to other graduate schools of the university (Fine Arts, Music, Global Arts). If, however, you have passed the exams of two or more of the graduate schools, you must decide which of the graduate schools you are going to attend and submit a Notice of Withdrawal (no official format required) to the graduate schools you will not be attending.

 Concurrent applications to any of the three departments within the Graduate School of Film and New Media are not permitted.

2-10. Prior consultation with disabled applicants

Applicants who require special support or consideration for exams or study should download and fill out the "Application for special consideration regarding exams or study" from the entrance exam info website (<https://admissions.geidai.ac.jp/home/hairyu>) and obtain a "medical examination report" from your doctor. Please submit these documents to the Educational Affairs Office at the Graduate School of Film and New Media before making your application. Also, if you are injured in an accident after making your application, please contact the office as soon as possible.

3. Submission of works and materials (by department)

3-1. Department of Film Production

3-1-1. Submission of works and materials

3-1-1-1. Films

- Submit a DVD-Video format (region 2 or region free) or Blu-ray disc (region A or region free) that can be played on a domestic Blu-ray player in Japan.
- Where the submission of a short film is specified as an assigned work, it should be 15 minutes or less in length.
 - * A re-edited version of 15 minutes or less based on a film that is longer than 15 minutes is also acceptable.
 - * If the film you submit plays for longer than 15 minutes, viewing will be stopped when 15 minutes have elapsed from the start of the film.
- Apply the appropriate Label for Submitted Work, available on the entrance exam info website (<https://admissions.geidai.ac.jp/postgraduate/youshiki1/>), to the case containing the disc.
- Write your full name and exam number on the disc with a permanent marker.

3-1-1-2. Film scripts

- First (cover) page: Write the title of the work, your exam number, full name, exam round (first, second or third round), and the course to which you are applying.
 - * Students applying to the Screenwriting Course should write a plot summary on the cover (500-600 Japanese characters in length).
- Second page: Character list
- Third page on: Script
 - * The script should be on A4-size paper with the text written vertically, 20 characters x 40 lines in an easy-to-read size.

· Submitting works and materials in person

- Place: Educational Affairs Office, Graduate School of Film and New Media (Bashamichi Building 1F, Yokohama Campus)
- If someone else is submitting your work and materials on your behalf, that person should also bring your exam slip and a written mandate from you (no particular format required).

3-1-1-7. Copyrights of works and materials

The consent of the copyright holder is required when someone other than the person who created the music, images etc. uses those works. Permission must be obtained from the person who created the work or the organization that manages the work. There are, however, ordinarily no copyright issues in cases where a work is submitted in the course of an entrance exam.

3-1-2. Return of works and materials

- Contact: Educational Affairs Office, Graduate School of Film and New Media
Tel: 045-650-6201
- Request the return of works and materials by telephoning during the specified time period.
- For applicants who submit a request, the works and materials will be mailed with postage paid by the recipient.
- Works will only be returned to applicants who were not successful in their application. Works will not be returned to successful applicants.
- If the return request is not received within the specified time period, the university will dispose of the works and materials.

3-1-3. Entrance exam selection process, schedule and content

Visit to research labs

The Graduate School of Film and New Media is planning visits to research labs for those who wish to apply to the Department of New Media. Details will be announced on the university's website, when they become available.

3-3. Department of Animation

3-3-1. Submission of reference materials for the first-round exam

3-3-1-1. Film Works

- "Film Works" refers to works and research achievements produced to date, which you are to compile in a single video under 10 minutes in length.
(Works-in-progress, videos of games in development, presentation videos, etc. may be included).
- Video file format MP4 (.mp4); video codec H.264 or MPEG-4; audio codec AAC or MP3.
- Begin the video file name with your exam number followed by the underscore bar.
Example: 87_*.mp4
- Use Japanese or English.

3-3-1-2. Portfolio

"Portfolio" refers to a compilation of the following items in a single PDF file.

- Detailed background about your career during university or after graduation.
- Details about your work and activities (in the case of joint productions, specify your role and area of responsibility)
- For research achievements, details about papers, conference presentations, writings, published articles, etc.
- PDF should be A4 horizontal format and under 10MB.
-Begin the file name with your exam number followed by the underscore bar.
Example: 87_*.pdf
- Use Japanese or English.

3-3-1-3. Research/Production Plan

"Research / Production Plan" refers to a compilation of the following items in a single PDF file.

- Explanation of the work that you want to produce or the purpose and content of the research you wish to conduct at graduate school.
- PDF in A4 format, 4 to 6 pages, under 10MB.
- Begin the file name with your exam number followed by the underscore bar.
Example: 87_*.pdf

4. Entrance exam procedures

4-1. Notice regarding entrance exams

- Information relating to exams other than that contained in this guide will be posted on the university's entrance exam info website (<https://admissions.geidai.ac.jp/schedule-results/fnm/>) on the day of the exam or days where interim announcements about successful candidates are made.
- Questions relating to the exam details or announcements of successful candidates will not be addressed.
- Those who fail the first-round (second-round) exam are not eligible to take the second-round (third-round) exam.
- The use of electronic devices equipped with a mobile phone or communication equipment is prohibited. Follow the exam proctor's instructions with regard to the handling of electronic devices at the exam venue.
- Bringing cameras or recording devices to or using cameras or recording devices in the exam venue is prohibited.
- Candidates who act in a dishonest manner during an exam will be removed from the exam venue in question and barred from taking any other exams.
- Exam candidates should arrive at the specified place of assembly by the specified time.
- Latecomers will not be given extra time to complete the exam.
- Be sure to bring your exam slip with you on the day. If you have lost your exam slip or forgotten to bring it, report the fact without delay.
- Follow all of the proctor's instructions during the exam.
- Exam papers and works produced by exam candidates will not be returned. Removal from the exam venue of exam papers or other materials issued by the department is not permitted.
- Entering buildings or classrooms other than the specified venue is not permitted.
- In the case of inclement weather etc., it may become difficult to maintain the environment of the exam venue. There may also be long waits for certain exams to start. Be sure to wear clothing that is appropriate for the environment on the day of the exam.
- Smoking is prohibited throughout the Tokyo University of the Arts campuses for secondhand smoke prevention. Thus, smoking is prohibited at the exam venues, including venues outside the campus. Also, strive to prevent secondhand smoke and be considerate of others if you smoke in the vicinity.
- If you have contracted or are recovering from an illness (influenza, measles, chicken pox, etc.) that results in required absence under the School Health and Safety Act, you cannot sit for the exam in the same room as other applicants because of the risk of infection. Please tell the exam proctor about your situation and follow instructions for taking the exam.
- The exam venues cannot be visited in advance.

4-2. Weather warnings/advisories issued on the day of the written exam or practical skills exam

If a weather warning/advisory is issued on the day of the written or practical skills exams, the university may delay the meeting time for applicants. Such announcements will be made on the exam info website (<https://admissions.geidai.ac.jp/>).

4—3. Notice regarding COVID-19

- The Graduate School of Film and New Media may decide to make changes to the entrance exam schedule, selection process, etc. as necessary in response to COVID-19. If changes should occur, updates will be posted on the exam info website (<https://admissions.geidai.ac.jp/>). Please check the website for updates on a daily basis.
- Applicants with symptoms including fever and cough are to visit a medical facility in advance for consultation.
- As a general rule, the following individuals are not allowed to take the entrance exam: those who have contracted COVID-19 and have not been diagnosed as recovered by a physician before the exam date, those who have been notified by a public health center for being in close contact with a confirmed COVID-19 case immediately before the exam date (Note 1), and those whose test date falls during the self-isolation period after entering Japan. There will be no special provisions for makeup exams or application fee refunds, so please take care to monitor your health for the day of the entrance exam.

Note 1 However, if you are an asymptomatic close contact and meet the following requirements, you can take the exam.

- (1) The results of the PCR test by the local government and antigen quantitative test at the quarantine station are negative.
- (2) You are asymptomatic on the day of the exam.
- (3) Do not use public transportation (trains, buses, taxis, aircraft, passenger ships, etc.) and avoid crowded places when you come to the exam venue.

If the above situation applies to you, please contact the Educational Affairs Office at the Graduate School of Film and New Media in advance.

(Telephone: 045-650-6201 / E-mail: eizo.kyomu@ml.geidai.ac.jp)

- Take your temperature in the morning during the week before the exam. Refrain from taking the exam if you have symptoms such as fever or cough and your temperature is 37.5 °C on the day of the exam. Also, if you have symptoms such as fever or cough and your temperature is below 37.5°C, inform the exam proctor. Your temperature may be checked at the exam venue using a non-contact thermometer.
- Regardless of whether or not you have symptoms, bring a mask and wear it at all times in the test venue except during meals.
- Refrain from socializing with others during rest periods and meals.
- Disinfect your hands with quick-drying alcohol hand sanitizer when entering and leaving the exam venue.
- Bring a jacket or other warm clothing, as the windows will be opened for a period of time to ventilate the exam venue on the day of the exam.
- Bring your lunch to the exam venue and eat at your seat or the designated area.
- It is preferable if you are vaccinated for influenza, etc. to reduce the risk of infection by other diseases.
- Strive to stay in good health by maintaining a balanced diet and getting sufficient exercise, rest, and sleep, etc. Also, avoid closed spaces, crowded places, and close-contact settings. Maintain physical distance and enforce cough etiquette and handwashing/disinfecting on a daily basis.
- After finishing the exam, wait as you are until dismissal instructions are given.
- Do not dispose of your mask at the exam venue.

- To the extent possible, return directly home without making any detours. Wash your face and hands first thing upon returning home.

● Exemption and Deferment for Admission/Tuition Fees

Tokyo University of the Arts has a scheme for exemption and deferment of admission/tuition fees. Those wishing to use this scheme should check the application requirements below and follow the required procedure prior to payment of admission/tuition fees.

Please be aware that applications are not accepted after the admission/tuition fee has been paid. Also, make adequate preparations to pay the admission/tuition fees, as admission fee exemption is not necessarily granted even if the application requirements are fulfilled, and there are cases in which tuition fee exemption is not permitted even if the application is submitted.

The application requirements for exemption and deferment are as follows:

(1) Admission fee exemption

- ① Cases in which difficulty in paying the admission fee for financial reasons and excellent academic standing are recognized
- ② Cases in which severe difficulty in paying the admission fee is recognized due to the following occurrences within one year prior to the admission payment deadline: the death of the applicant's primary household income earner, or wind, flood or other natural disaster experienced by the applicant or the applicant's primary household income earner
- ③ Cases similar to ① above with comparable reasons as recognized by the university president

(2) Admission fee deferment

- ① Cases in which difficulty in paying the admission fee by the deadline for financial reasons and excellent academic standing are recognized
- ② Cases in which difficulty in paying the admission fee by the deadline is recognized due to the following occurrences within one year prior to admission: the death of the applicant's primary household income earner, or wind, flood or other natural disaster experienced by the applicant or the applicant's primary household income earner
- ③ Cases in which other unavoidable circumstances are recognized

(3) Tuition fee exemption

- ① Cases in which difficulty in paying the tuition fee for financial reasons and excellent academic standing are recognized
- ② Cases in which severe difficulty in paying the tuition fee is recognized due to the following occurrences within one year prior to the tuition payment deadline: the death of the applicant's primary household income earner, or wind, flood or other natural disaster experienced by the applicant or the applicant's primary household income earner

(4) Tuition fee deferment

- ① Cases in which it is recognized that the applicant faces difficulty in paying the tuition fee by the payment deadline for financial reasons and has excellent academic standing
- ② Cases in which difficulty in paying the tuition fee by the deadline is recognized due to the following occurrences within one year prior to tuition payment: the death of the applicant's primary household income earner, or wind, flood or other natural disaster experienced by the applicant or the applicant's primary household income earner
- ③ Cases in which other unavoidable circumstances are recognized

Consult the university website for details regarding the scheme:

Admission fee exemption and deferment https://www.geidai.ac.jp/life/entrance_fee/waiver_deferral_admission

Tuition fee exemption and deferment https://www.geidai.ac.jp/life/entrance_fee/waiver_deferral_tuition

● Study Support Scholarship

There is a scholarship scheme granting ¥50,000 per semester (¥100,000 per year, no repayment obligation) for cases in which the applicant faces difficulty in paying the tuition fee for financial reasons but is ineligible for tuition fee exemption above due to inadequate academic standing at the applicant's graduating school, provided that the applicant meets the prescribed requirements.

Applicants wishing to utilize this scholarship need to follow the prescribed procedure at the same time as undertaking the above tuition fee exemption procedure.

● Scholarship for Outstanding Students

Tokyo University of the Arts actively supports motivated students with exceptional talent through establishing various scholarship schemes and commending enrolled students who achieve outstanding marks. There is no payment obligation for these scholarships. Consult the Tokyo University of the Arts website for details regarding the scholarships.

https://www.geidai.ac.jp/life/scholarship/geidai_scholarship

5-2. Notice for foreign students

Visa for entry into Japan

- The applicant is responsible for applying to obtain a visa for entry into Japan and acquiring status of residence separately from the enrollment procedure.
- It is possible to enter Japan with a "short-term stay" visa to take the examination; however, if you are admitted to the university, obtain a "student" visa by the time of admission.

5-3. Disclosure of entrance exam results

Individual results in the entrance exams for the Graduate School of Film and New Media Master's Degree Program will only be disclosed upon the request of the exam candidate. Requests for disclosure can be made in the following way.

• Methods of request

Make requests by post. Complete all the underlined parts of the "Request for disclosure of individual results" form available on the entrance exam info website (<https://admissions.geidai.ac.jp/postgraduate/youshiki1/>). Send the form together with your exam slip and a reply envelope (a rectangular No. 3 envelope, 12x23.5 cm with your name, address and post code and a ¥404 stamp affixed) to the Educational Affairs Office, Graduate School of Film and New Media, Tokyo University of the Arts (4-44 Honcho, Nakaku, Yokohama 231-0005) via simplified registered post. The Educational Affairs Office accepts requests in person in the case of enrolled students only. You will receive a reply by simplified registered post within about two weeks after the deadline for requests.

• Dates for acceptance of requests

8 May 2023 (Monday) - 12 May 2023 (Friday)

Requests postmarked within the dates shown above will be accepted.

• Content of disclosure

○Disclosure of individual exam results for 2023

○Individual results will be disclosed in the form of test scores or grades on a ranked scale.

Please note that individual rankings will not be disclosed.

5-4. Handling of personal information

The university uses the personal information it acquires through the student selection process in the following ways:

• Purpose of use

- Personal information including the full name and address of successful candidates is used in tasks relating to the student admission process;
- Personal information including the full name and address of students undergoing the student admission process is used in tasks relating to schooling including management of post-admission academic history and tasks relating to management health and well-being, including health check-ups;
- Personal information including the full name and address of students undergoing the admission process is used in tasks relating to administration of payments, including collection of admission fees and tuition fees;
- Personal information including results etc. obtained during the student selection process is used for tasks relating to learning support, including exemption from payment of the admission fee or tuition fees in the first academic year and in the selection of scholarship students etc.
- Personal information including results obtained in the student selection process is used for tasks incidental to statistics management etc. and admission guidance where individuals are not specifically identified, and surveys and research relating to selection of students by the university.

• Provision of personal information to third parties

Except where provided in Article 9 of the Act relating to Protection of Personal Information held by Incorporated Administrative Agencies etc., personal information obtained by the university is not used for other purposes or provided to third parties without the consent of the applicant. However, the minimum required information may be provided in the following cases:

- Tasks involving the handling of personal information described in the above "Purpose of use" may be entrusted to an external third party after concluding a contract with them concerning the appropriate handling of personal information
- Provision of information to parties outside the university in cases in which this would be in the interests of the person concerned
 - Tokyo University of the Arts Cooperative Association
